S. Comments:Rider questioned regarding horse's performance. She said she was instructed to ride the horse in a rearward position, and when caught wide in the early stages she elected to restrain to the rear of the field and when the pace was only moderate in the middle stages, the horse was unsuited when the race developed into a sprint home. She added that in hindsight, after beginning well, it may have been a better option to allow the horse to stride forward in the early stages to take up a handy position. Vetted, no abnormalities.

S. Comments:Questioned regarding performance, rider stated his mount lost ground after it began very awkwardly, shifted out and bumped heavily, rider added that his mount continued to shift out and lose ground before he was obliged to continually ride it along to obtain a position just worse than midfield in the middle stages, rider stated that his mount was under pressure rounding the home turn and was very disappointing. A post race veterinary examination revealed the filly was lame in the near fore leg.

S. Comments:When q'd re performance of the filly jockey stated that his mount settled in a handy position and travelled comfortably in the early and middle stages. Jockey added that when he placed his mount under pressure passing the 600m it failed to respond and was disappointing in its run to the line.

When q'd, trainer stated that the filly was first up today over 1250m and in hindsight may have been too fresh for the event. A post race veterinary examination of the filly did not reveal any abnormality. Trainer was advised that a warning would be placed on the filly for its poor performance.

S. Comments:Rider B. Ainsworth reported it had been her intention to be aggressive out of the barriers and ride the horse in a forward position, however the mare was slow to begin. This resulted in the horse overracing badly until the 600m, at which point she shifted wider on the track and raced wide from that point onwards.
