Specific instructions not to race near rail and for this reason remained racing behind NAKANAI until approaching home turn. In middle stages gelding dropped the bit and in his opinion was not handling soft track conditions. He indicated he had anticipated settling closer to the lead, however, in his view, the horse did not muster early speed. He said he would have also liked to improve his position from the 600m, however COBRA QUICK, which was racing to the outside, laid in after passing the 600m, restricting his racing room slightly, and this in conjunction with his mount commencing to hang out, resulted in him having to steady from the heels of COBRA QUICK approaching the 500m. S. Comments:Lunged forward prior to the start being effected, making contact with the front gate, was examined by the veterinary surgeon and passed fit to start. S. Baster reported following the event that his mount, whilst forced to race wide without cover, never travelled well throughout and eased over the concluding stages. A post-race veterinary examination revealed no significant findings. Co-trainer Mr A. Bott advised that after the gelding's disappointing effort today, it may be spelled.

He added that he did not wish to restrain his mount behind MAGNUS COR near the 800m as he was mindful that when OF THE DAY beat FINAL ZERO at Doomben on 12 August, it took almost the entire straight to run that mare down, and with FINAL ZEROS light weight today, he was of the belief that he would be giving that mare too much start.
