She added on return to scale the stablehand handling the horse indicated the filly appeared to have its tongue over the bit and this may have caused the poor performance. Trainer M. Mair indicated that the distance of today's event may not have been suitable for the filly at this stage of its preparation, adding he may trial the horse before its next race start. Vetted with no abnormalities reported.

Rider said the horse travelled well in early and middle stages, and when asked for an effort on straightening only responded for a short distance, then commenced to compound and was disappointing. Vetted, no abnormalities. Tnr. subsequently reported that he believes the heavy track combined with the horse becoming unbalanced when making contact with another runner on straightening were telling factors in its performance, however it has pleased him in its work since then and he will continue with its current prep.

the early and middle stages. Jockey added that when he placed his mount under pressure passing the 600m it failed to respond and was disappointing in its run to the line. When q'd, trainer stated that the filly was first up today over 1250m and in hindsight may have been too fresh for the event. A post race veterinary examination of the filly did not reveal any abnormality. Trainer was

S. Comments:Questioned re disappointing performance - jockey stated gelding travelled comfortably during the early and middle stages but was reluctant to stretch out when placed under pressure rounding home turn and proved dissappointing. Trainer reported gelding pulled up well following the race and was at a loss to explain performance, except to say it may have failed to handle the wet conditions and as such would continue with current preperation. Post race vet exam - slow recovery rate.

S. Comments:Rider questioned regarding horse's performance. She said she was instructed to ride the horse in a rearward position, and when caught wide in the early stages she elected to restrain to the rear of the field and when the pace was only moderate in the middle stages, the horse was unsuited when the race developed into a sprint home. She added that in hindsight, after beginning well, it may have been a better option to allow the horse to stride forward in the early stages to take up a handy position. Vetted, no abnormalities.

A post race veterinary examination failed to reveal any significant abnormalities.
