S. Comments:J. Lloyd indicated that he was disappointed in the horse's performance. He stated that he was forced to ride the horse along in the early stages as the horse did not show its customary early speed. He further indicated that he did not believe that the mare was entirely comfortable in the rain-affected conditions. He added that he shifted out rounding the home turn to avoid the heels of a weakening runner and despite being afforded clear running in the home straight the mare did not respond to his riding. Vetted, no abnormalities. Stable to furnish vet and endoscopic results to stewards.

S. Comments:Rider questioned re riding rounding home turn - stated reluctant to improve to inside of STORMY DESTINY at that point, as that gelding was shifting ground and was concerned he may be held up behind leader in early stages of home straight. therefore elected to wait until the entrance to the home straight to shift out around the heels of STORMY DESTINY to secure clear running. Added gelding failed to quicken as expected and despite having clear running for entire home straight was unable to run leader down. Explanation noted.

Fradd stated that after being slow into stride and being severely checked, the gelding raced further back than he would have liked, and then approaching the home turn he had to alter course when in restricted room, which forced him to lose some momentum at that point of the race, however the gelding then finished the race off quite well over the concluding stages and in his opinion would be better suited in races longer than that of today

S. Comments:Jockey G. Colless reported the horse travelled to the 600m, however when placed under pressure failed to respond and he became concerned something was amiss with his mount and for this reason eased the colt down in the straight. A post race veterinary examination failed to reveal any significant abnormalities. Trainer K. Schweida advised he would have a full veterinary examination carried out on the gelding, the results of which he would forward on to stewards.
